

ORGAN CONCERT

By Ian Tomesch, University Organist

Featuring works by Bach, Scheidemann, Schumann, Langlais, Vierne, and Steven Sametz, Professor of Music at Lehigh University.

Sunday, March 6

3:00 p.m.

In historic Packer
Memorial Church
Lehigh University
18 University Drive
Bethlehem, PA 18015

Ian Tomesch, Lehigh University Organist and Associate Organist of the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart, Newark, NJ, is a doctoral candidate in organ at Yale University, where he studied with Thomas Murray (organ). While at Yale, Ian received the Mary Baker Prize for Organ Accompaniment and the Julia R. Sherman Prize for Organ. Prior to coming to Yale, Ian earned degrees in philosophy and organ performance from Oberlin College, where studied with James David Christie. Recent performance projects include the complete organ works of Maurice Durulfé and Marcel Dupré's Le Chemin de la Croix.

Free Admission

~

An offering will be collected for maintenance of the pipe organ.

Post-Concert Reception

immediately following the concert in the lobby of the STEPS building, 1 West Packer Avenue.

Parking available along Packer Avenue as well as nearby city streets. For more information, please call the Lehigh University Chaplain's Office (610) 758-3877.